Lent 5 (TK)

[Dinner begins with “As We Gather” and open-prayer.]

1. Entrance

[Singing + Standing] Psalm 134

Come, bless the Lord, all you servants of the Lord, who stand by night in the house of the Lord!

Lift up your hands to the holy place and bless the Lord!

The Lord bless you,

He who made heaven and earth!

Songs.

2. Purification

[Singing] The Lenten Hymn

Let us go up to Jerusalem, where the Son of Man will be crucified.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God,
have mercy on me a sinner.

And with Blind Bartimaeus, let us cry for mercy;
that we may know Christ and follow Him.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God,
have mercy on me a sinner.

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in His holy place?
The clean of hands and pure of heart.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God,
have mercy on me a sinner.

[Silent repentance.]

Psalm 130 + Verses¹

Lord, have mercy on me;
heal my soul, for I have sinned against You.

Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord;

Lord, hear my voice!

O let Your ears be attentive to the sound of my pleadings.

Help us, O God our savior,
for the sake of the glory of Your name:
free us and forgive us our sins.

If You, O Lord, should mark iniquities,

¹ Psalm 41:4; 79:9; Genesis 3:19; Psalm 103:13, 14; 113:14; and Galatians 2:20.

Lord, who could stand?
But with You is found forgiveness,
that You may be revered.

For we are dust, and to dust we shall return.

But the Lord's compassion is on those who fear Him.

I long for You, O Lord,
my soul longs for His word.
My soul awaits the Lord
more than watchmen for daybreak.

For He knows of what we are made;

He remembers that we are dust.

More than watchmen for daybreak,
let Israel hope for the Lord.
For with the Lord there is mercy,
in Him is plentiful redemption.

From the dust He lifts up the lowly,
from the ash heap He raises the poor.

It is He who will redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

For I have been crucified with Christ.

It is no longer I who live,
but Christ who lives in me.

And the life I now live in the flesh

I live by faith in the Son of God who loved me and gave Himself for me.

3. Illumination²

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

O Heavenly King, the Comforter, the Spirit of Truth,
Who are in all places and fill all things,
Treasury of Good and Giver of Life:
Come and abide in us.
Cleanse us from every stain and save our souls, O Good One.

[Standing] The Blessing

Let us stand, for it is time for the Lord to act.
Blessed is the Kingdom of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

[A woman places Communion on the table and lights the candles.]

[Singing]

O Gladsome Light,
pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven,
O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed!
Now as we come to the setting of the sun,
and our eyes behold the vesper light,
we sing Your praises, O God:
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

² Or "Ascension," for his is where we ascend and enter into the heavenly realm. The candle symbolizes this entrance and our offering of thanksgiving is our gift.

You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices, O Son of God, O Giver of Life, and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Psalm 103. Of David.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and all within me, His holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and never forget all His benefits.

It is the Lord Who forgives all your sins,
Who heals every one of your ills,
Who redeems your life from the grave,
Who crowns you with mercy and compassion,
Who fills your life with good things, renewing your youth like an eagle's.

The Lord does deeds of justice, gives full justice to all who are oppressed.
He made known His ways to Moses,
and His deeds to the children of Israel.

The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger and rich in mercy.

He will not always find fault;
nor persist in His anger forever.

He does not treat us according to our sins,
nor repay us according to our faults.

For as the heavens are high above the earth,

so strong His mercy for those who fear Him.

As far as the east is from the west,

so far from us does He remove our transgressions.

As a father has compassion on his children,

the Lord's compassion is on those who fear Him.

For He knows of what we are made;

He remembers that we are dust.

Man, his days are like grass;

he flowers like the flower of the field.

The wind blows, and it is no more,

and its place never sees it again.

But the mercy of the Lord is everlasting upon those who hold Him in fear,

upon children's children His justice,

for those who keep His covenant,

and remember to fulfill His commands.

The Lord has fixed His throne in heaven, and His kingdom is ruling over all.

Bless the Lord, all you His angels, mighty in power, fulfilling His word,

who heed the voice of His word.

Bless the Lord, all His hosts,

His servants, who do His will.

Bless the Lord, all His works,

in every place where He rules.

Bless the Lord, O my soul!

John 8:46-59

[Singing] The Lenten Hymn: Second Sunday

Look upon us with Your mercy, guarding and guiding us with Your great goodness.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God,
have mercy on me a sinner.

You have promised that whoever keeps Your word will never see death.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God,
have mercy on me a sinner.

Glory to You, O Eternal Christ—the I Am—both descended from Abraham and the one from whom Abraham descended.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God,
have mercy on me a sinner.

The Creed: Philippians 2:5–11

Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus:

Though He was in the form of God,
He did not count equality with God
a thing to be grasped,
but emptied Himself,
taking the form of a servant,
and being born in the likeness of men.
And being found in human form,
He humbled Himself

by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

Therefore God has highly exalted Him and bestowed on Him the Name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bow,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Greeting: Christ is among us! Let us greet one another.

Sermon.

3. Communion

[Singing]

You hear us calling, You hear us calling, Abba Father. (2x)
Lord have mercy! Christ have mercy! (2x)

Prayers.

[Standing + Singing] The Offering: Psalm 141

I have called to You, O Lord.
Hear me Lord!

O make haste to help me, Lord.

Hear me Lord!

Hear my voice; I cry to You.

Hear me Lord!

Let my prayer be as incense before You,

the raising of my hands like the evening offering.

The Lord's Prayer

Thank You, Most High God, that You hear us;
and that through Christ we may call You our Father,
and as one, pray:

Our Father...

Psalm 116:12-13 [Taking the Cup]

How can I repay the Lord for all His goodness to me?

The cup of salvation I will raise;

I will call on the name of the Lord.

Thanksgiving for the Cup [Raising the Cup]

We give You thanks, our Father, for the Holy Vine of Your servant David which You revealed to us through Your servant Jesus —
the True Vine, in whom we bear fruit.

To You be glory forever!

Thanksgiving for the Bread [Raising the Bread]

We give You thanks, our Father,
for Your life and knowledge
which You revealed to us through Your servant Jesus — the Bread of Life, given for the life of the world.
To You be glory forever!

[The Bread is broken.]

Just as this broken bread was scattered over the hills as grain and has been gathered together and made one;
so may Your church be gathered together
from the ends of the earth into Your kingdom.

The Invitation to Holy Communion

Since we have a great High Priest — Jesus, the Son of God — who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin:
let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

[Congregation receives and partakes in Holy Communion during the song.³]

Thanksgiving for Communion

We give You thanks, our Father,
for You have fed us with the life of Christ.
May we be healed, body and soul;
made partakers of Your divine nature;
and rescued from the corruption of sin.

³ A blessing may be said over each recipient as the bread is received.

O give thanks to the Lord, for He is good;

for His mercy endures forever!

O give thanks to the God of gods, for He is good;

for His mercy endures forever!

O give thanks to the Lord of lords, for He is good;

for His mercy endures forever!

4. Benediction

The Lenten Prayer of St. Ephraim

O Lord and Master of my life,
do not give to me the spirit of laziness, faintheartedness, lust for power, and idle talk.

O God, cleanse me, a sinner.

But give to me, Your servant,
the spirit of purity, humility, patience, and love.

O God, cleanse me, a sinner.

O Lord and King,
grant me to see my own faults and not to judge my brother,
for blessed are You unto ages of ages.

O God, cleanse me, a sinner.

[Standing and Singing] The Benediction⁴

May the peace of the Lord Christ go with you, wherever He may send you.

May He guide you through the wilderness, protect you through the storm.

May He bring you home rejoicing
at the wonders He has shown you.

May He bring you home rejoicing
once again into our doors.

⁴ "God's presence is never neutral; the result of engaging him must ever be either blessing or judgment. Meeting with God through the way he has opened leads to benediction, while approaching YHWH through a manner he himself has not ordained results in judgment. One reason why this is so is because the unclean cannot come into contact with the holy without being destroyed." (L. Michael Morales, Who Shall Ascend the Mountain of the Lord?: A Biblical Theology of the Book of Leviticus, 140.)
